

THE Sheriar
Collection

BOOKS
BY AND ABOUT
MEHER BABA

SHERIAR PRESS

God To Man and Man To God: The Discourses of Meher Baba by Meher Baba.
300 pp. Hardcover
$10.00.

The discourses of Meher Baba are here edited and condensed at Meher Baba's request. A volume of immense inspiration and practicality for those interested in their Real Selves.

Sparks of the Truth from the Dissertations of Meher Baba. A Version by C. D. Deshmukh. 96 pp. Paperback $5.95.

Twenty powerful dissertations on the spiritual path, the nature of the soul and the meaning of life.

Life At Its Best by Meher Baba. 73 pp. Hardcover $8.00.

Meeting life squarely is the focus of this collection of short discourses from Meher Baba's 1956 tour of the United States.

The Path of Love by Meher Baba. 129 pp. Paperback $6.95.

A wide-ranging collection of Meher Baba's words on many topics from the 1953-1987 Awakener magazines.

The Everything and The Nothing by Meher Baba.
115 pp. Paperback
$6.95.

A new edition presents sixty-five messages by Meher Baba from the early 1960s. The statements appeal to both the curious mind and the thirsty heart, carrying the power of Meher Baba's Infinite Consciousness and the perfect simplicity of his divinely loving heart. Among the messages are: The Lover and the Beloved; God is Shy of Strangers; the Pearl Diver; Forgive and Forget.

God Speaks by Meher Baba.
374 pp. Supplement, charts, glossary, index. Hardcover
$25.00.

The many diffuse concepts of spiritual truth as well as new and detailed thought patterns are clarified and brought together in this monumental work. The book describes the intricate process of reincarnation and the inward journey along the spiritual path as the soul consciously returns to the Oversoul of its origin. It covers "The Planes," States of Divine Consciousness and includes Seven Charts.

Discourses
by Meher Baba. 452 pp.
7th Edition. Paperback $12.00.

Meher Baba's Discourses throw the light of true knowledge on many of life's most perplexing problems. Inspiring and practical, the Discourses provides an ever-fresh framework of spiritual perspective on the challenges of everyday life. As Meher Baba stated, "Words that proceed from the Source of Truth have real meaning." The Discourses bears eloquent testimony to that fact and will remain an incomparable companion for those seeking spiritual direction.

The Wayfarers: Meher Baba with the God-Intoxicated
by William Donkin. 576 pp. Illus.
Hardcover $30.00.

The Wayfarers is the only book of its kind. It chronicles in the finest detail what was a major part of Meher Baba's work during his lifetime: contacting hundreds of those who are called masts in the East, spiritually advanced souls so enthralled with their yearning for union with God that they lose touch with the ordinary world.

Beams from Meher Baba on the Spiritual Panorama by Meher Baba
88 pp.
Hardcover $8.00.

Thirteen dynamic essays given by Meher Baba in response to questions raised by the editors of God Speaks about the inner mechanics of the spiritual journey.

Darshan Hours by Meher Baba. Edited by Eruch Jessawala and Rick Chapman.
72 pp.
Paperback $4.95.

A small jewel of a book, packed with Meher Baba's advice and instructions given to close followers and visitors during a darshan in India in the spring of 1960.

Listen, Humanity by Don Stevens. 262 pp.
Paperback $12.95.

A favorite introductory book on Meher Baba for almost 40 years. Includes a lively narrative of a four week sahavas in 1955 and more than 100 pages of messages by Baba.

The Perfect Master: The Early Life of Meher Baba by Charles B. Purdom. 330 pp. Paperback $6.95.

The first biography of Meher Baba published in the West, this 1937 work is finely balanced between Purdom's carefully objective scholarship and the irrepressible excitement of his own discovery of Meher Baba.

Much Silence by Tom and Dorothy Hopkinson. 230 pp. Paperback $7.95.

Intended as a brief but complete introduction to Meher

Baba for Westerners, this finely written biography offers one of the most readable accounts of Meher Baba's life.

Avatar by Jean Adriel. 285 pp. Paperback $8.95.

This colorful biography by one of Meher Baba's early Western followers, gives the reader a vivid look at Meher Baba the man.

Meher Baba, The Compassionate One by Rick Chapman. 116 pp. Paperback $6.95.

A brief overview of the facts of Meher Baba's life with a varied collection of his messages.

It So Happened. Compiled by William LePage. 170 pp. Paperback $5.95.

A delightful variety of short stories about life with Meher Baba, told by some of his closest disciples.

The Ancient One: A Disciple's Memoirs of Meher Baba. Edited by Naosherwan Anzar. 247 pp. Paperback $12.00.

Narrated by Eruch Jessawala, one of Meher Baba's close disciples, The Ancient

One relates the details of life with Meher Baba over many years.

Let's Go To Meherabad by Bhau Kalchuri. 147 pp. Paperback $6.95.

A most detailed and colorful history of the first two decades of Meher Baba's life and work at Meherabad. Illustrated with maps, artwork and early photographs.

Conversations With The Awakener by Bal Natu. 124 pp. Paperback. $10.00.

From the pen of Bal Natu, author of the Glimpses series, comes this extraordinarily inspiring collection of internal conversations with the Beloved. Simple and soaring, poignant and funny, these conversations allow us to eavesdrop on an intensely personal relationship between a lover and his God. A huge favorite.

God-Brother
Stories from my Childhood with
Meher Baba
by Mani S. Irani. 160 pp.
Paperback $12.00.

Meher Baba was 24 years old when his sister, Mani, was born. God-Brother is Mani Irani's account of her childhood with Meher Baba, when, even at that age, he was the pivot point of her life. Childhood stories they may be, but they carry with them the deeper meanings and understandings that come with Mani's long, close association with the Avatar of the Age. And their innate charm is enhanced by Wodin's free-spirited illustrations.

Mehera by Mehera J. Irani.
Compiled from talks and tape recordings.

Illustrated. 317 pp.
Hardcover $30.00.
 Meher Baba said of Mehera J. Irani, "She is my very breath."

Between the pages of this book, in her own words, is all the flavor of that unique love.

Letters from the Mandali of Avatar Meher Baba. Vol. I.

Compiled by Jim Mistry. 152 pp.
Paperback $7.95.

Behind the well-documented areas of Meher Baba's life is a vast store of correspondence between him and his followers. Written by seven close disciples, with varying degrees of Meher Baba's participation, the letters in this collection focus on spiritual issues and date from the 1950s to 1981.

Letters from the Mandali of Avatar Meher Baba. Vol. II.

Compiled by Jim Mistry. 176 pp.
Paperback $7.95.

A series of letters from Meher Baba to Dr. William Donkin in the 1930s and 1940s highlights this second collection of letters, providing a matchless portrait of Meher Baba's relationship with those committed to following him.

Baba Loved Us Too: Stories of Meher Baba and His Pets
by Mehera J. Irani. Illustrated.
172 pp.
Paperback $8.95.

These stories of Meher Baba's pets come straight from Mehera's porch at Meherazad—site of the telling of many a tale about the Avatar over the past 20 years. From peacock to pig, dog to deer, Meher Baba's pets wander through these pages with humor and love, evoking sweet memories of the Avatar's household and of the special woman who tells their stories.

Eighty-Two Family Letters to the Western Followers of Meher Baba by Mani S. Irani.

376 pp.
Paperback $12.00.

Meher Baba's sister and close disciple combines lively language and an observant eye to paint a bright, intimate picture of Meher Baba's activities from 1958 to 1969.

The Best of the Glow: A Fifteen Year Retrospective. Edited by Naosherwan Anzar. 200 pp. Paperback $8.95. From its inception in 1966, The Glow Magazine has represented an on-going source of interviews, articles and documentaries devoted to Meher Baba.

Three Incredible Weeks with Meher Baba: September 11-September 30, 1954 by Malcolm Schloss and Charles Purdom. 178 pp. Paperback $7.95.

A day-by-day diary account of a unique three-week darshan when 20 Western men were invited by Meher Baba to take part in his daily life.

Tales from the New Life With Meher Baba. Narrated by Eruch, Mehera, Mani and Meheru. 200 pp. Paperback $6.95.

Four close disciples who participated in this phase of wandering tell stories of the 2 1/2 year odyssey Meher Baba called The New Life.

Because of Love: My Life and Art with Meher Baba by Rano Gayley. 132 pp. 8-1/2 x 11-1/4" Hardcover. $25.00.

The intriguing and enigmatic Ten

Circles Chart is the focal point of this memoir by one of Meher Baba's early Western disciples. Fully illustrated in color and black and white.

Treasures from the Meher Baba Journals. Compiled and edited by Jane Barry Haynes. 246 pp. Illus. with 30 photographs. Paperback $8.95.

Written by a staff of Indian, American,

English and Russian disciples then living with Meher Baba in India, the Journals were published monthly from 1938 to 1942. Treasures culls the best accounts of Meher Baba's ashram from that period.

A Love So Amazing: Memories of Meher Baba by Bili Eaton. 133 pp. Paperback $8.95.

The unplanned journey to God is the focus of this memoir of meetings with Meher Baba in the 1950s and 1960s. A joyful read.

The God-Man
by Charles Purdom.
458 pp. Hardcover
$20.00.

Completed by one of Meher Baba's early western disciples in 1962, The God-Man remains the most authoritative biography of Meher Baba published. With access to diaries by close disciples and to "living witnesses," Purdom has written an account which celebrates with heart and head the advent of Avatar Meher Baba.

The Beloved:
The Life and Work of Meher Baba
by Naosherwan Anzar. 158 pp.
Hardcover $18.00. Paperback $12.00.

Full of heart and love, this unusual biography combines text, annotations and 165 photographs to provide a fascinating record of Meher Baba's early childhood; his contacts with his spiritual Masters; and the 50 subsequent years of extraordinary work. The text is based on both published and unpublished diaries and notes from Baba's earliest disciples.

Just To Love Him: Talks and Essays About Meher Baba by Adi K. Irani. 140 pp. Paperback $8.95.

A collection of the best of the public talks given by Adi, Meher Baba's secretary, around the world, plus a collection of his essays from various sources. Eloquent and insightful.

Ramjoo's Diaries 1922-1929: Personal Account of Meher

Baba's Early Work by Ramjoo Abdulla. 585 pp. Hardcover $18.00.

This intimate account, kept at Meher Baba's order, tells the incredible tale of the first seven years of Baba's avatic mission. It includes Sobs and Throbs, a full account of Baba's unique spiritual school for boys in the 1920s.

Practical Spirituality with Meher Baba by John Grant.

240 pp. Paperback $15.95. Hardcover $19.95.

The title of this delightful book is deceiving as it has more to do with accounts of Meher Baba's visits to Australia in 1956 and 1958.

Glimpses of the God-Man, Meher Baba by Bal Natu

Vol. I. 431 pp. Paperback $10.00. The first in Bal Natu's biographical series, Volume I covers 1943 to 1948, including the great mast trips.

Vol. II. 406 pp. Paperback $10.00. Volume II covers the years 1949 to 1952, a unique period called the New Life.

Vol. III. 327 pp. Paperback $10.00. Details on a series of darshans in India from February 1952 to February 1953, and Baba's tour of Europe and the U.S.A. in 1952.

Vol. IV. 216 pp. Paperback $10.00. Covers Meher Baba's nine-month visit to Dehra Dun in 1953 and the first public declaration of his Avatarhood.

Vol. V. 325 pp. Paperback $10.00. The almost hourly detail of Meher Baba's travels through Hamirpur and Andhra over a nine-week period in 1954.

AVAILABLE IN AUGUST, 1993.

The Turning of the Key: Meher Baba in Australia by Bill LePage. Approx. 360 pp. Photographs. Paperback $12.00.

Meher Baba in the land called "Down Under" is the focus of these enthralling memoirs by a man who has spent most of his adult life dedicated to the spread of Baba's message in Australia and to the development of Avatar's Abode, Baba's home in that country. Complete with accounts of Baba's two visits to Australia and LePage's own notes on the Three Incredible Weeks and an extended 1967 visit to Baba in India.

Love Alone Prevails:
A Story of Life with Meher Baba
by Kitty Davy. 727 pp.
Maps and photographs.
Hardcover $25.00.

This delightfully candid autobiography stands as a monument to Kitty Davy's unforgettable love for and devotion to Meher Baba over 60 years until her death at 100 in 1991. It is a volume of immense scope and detail, unequaled by any other book about the Avatar, based as it is on Miss Davy's own diaries and those of her companions. And through her eyes one comes to see the divinity and the humanity that is Meher Baba.

The Dance of Love:
My Life with Meher Baba
by Margaret Craske.
180 pp. Paperback
$10.00.

With humor, with love and with incomparable wit, Miss Craske shares wonderful tales of her 60-year relationship with Meher Baba, and preserves for all time an aspect of Meher Baba that easily could have been lost — his divinely delicious sense of humor. Here is Meher Baba as he really was.

Still Dancing with Love:
More Stories of Life with Meher Baba
by Margaret Craske.
116 pp. Paperback $8.95.

Published a few weeks after her death at 97 in 1990, this book offers more tales of early ashram life and vignettes of other people who heard of Meher Baba through Miss Craske. But most of all there are stories of Meher Baba's direct and indirect influence, of love and obedience, of charm and humor.

The Ocean of Love:
My Life with Meher Baba
by Delia DeLeon.
256 pp. Paperback
$10.00.

A breezy style, wrapped in great thoughtfulness and insight, marks this memoir from one of Meher Baba's earliest Western disciples. One of the volume's highlights is Delia's collection of letters, postcards and cables reproduced throughout its pages, giving a strong sense of immediacy, of being in that time when one could be fortunate enough to receive direct communications from Meher Baba.

HOW TO ORDER

Please total your order and add shipping charges ($3.50 for the first item, 75 cents for each additional item.)

For orders outside of USA, please double the above shipping charges.

Send your check or money order in U.S. dollars (or Visa or MasterCard information for orders of $25.00 or more) to:

Sheriar Press, Book Division

3005 Highway 17 North Bypass, Myrtle Beach SC 29577, Telephone (803) 448-1107